ETUCE at the 14th Congress of the European Trade Union Confederation

The 14th Congress of the European Trade Union Confederation gathered trade unions in Vienna to discuss “A Fairer Europe for Workers”. The 699 delegates, of which 48.5% were women and 10% were young delegates discussed on the European Pillar of Social Rights, building solidarity on migration, asylum,... >>>>>

ETUCE and EFEE join forces to fully recognise the right to education to migrant and refugee children in the EU

Fences and walls, detention camps, attacks on NGOs rescuing the lives of those attempting to cross the Mediterranean Sea in the desperate search for a better life, and inhuman behaviours against migrants and refugees fleeing wars, persecutions and starvation are only some of the events which are wor... >>>>>

Innovation and inclusion in education: education social partners taking the lead

What are the dangers from company-led innovation in education? What are the effects of learning analytics (LA) and artificial intelligence (AI) on students’ learning and teachers’ employment and wellbeing? How to promote the ethical use of learning analytics and artificial intelligence with a view t... >>>>>

ETUCE on the 20th Anniversary of the Bologna Process: Academic freedom must be more safeguarded than ever

On 24-25 June, 2019 the Italian Ministry of Education, University and Research, which holds the Secretariat of the Bologna Follow-Up Group until 2020, organised a major event in cooperation with the University of Bologna, the Magna Charta Universitatum, EUA, ESU and other partners for celebrating th... >>>>>
France: SNES-FSU warns Ministry about National Strike envisaged for 27 June 2019

The mobilisation of 17 June, on the first day of the Baccalaureate written exams, was a real success, both in terms of number of strikers and in terms of number of people joining the rallies, which made it possible to maintain opposition to the ongoing reforms and low wages in France, reported SNES-... >>>>>>

Serbia: Planned protest action against Government's reluctance to sign collective agreement in higher education

ETUCE member organisations in Serbia - TUS, SSS-Serbia and NTTU – have called on all education employees in the higher education sector to join the protest action taking place on 8 June 2019 in Belgrade. The action aims at the reluctance of the Ministry of Finance to approve the proposal that t... >>>>>>

More news is available on our website: csee-etuce.org

The European Trade Union Committee for Education (ETUCE) represents 131 Teacher Unions and 11 million teachers in all countries of Europe, 4.2 million teachers in the EU, from all levels of the education sector. ETUCE is a Social Partner in education at the EU level and a European Trade Union Federation within ETUC, the European Trade Union Confederation. ETUCE is the European Region of Education International, the global federation of teacher unions.

e-mail: secretariat@csee-etuce.org
Phone : +32 (0)2 224 06 92

Please do not reply to this e-mail
To unsubscribe from this email, please follow this link
To support the work of ETUCE, please forward this message to your friends and colleagues.
To subscribe to this email visit the ETUCE homepage